Locals Win From Folsom; Go To Lincoln Sunday

Mountain Batters Fatten Averages Off Three Pitchers

Behind the steady pitching of Charles Perry, the Truckee Tahoe Mountaineers proved they are one of the best teams in the Placer Nevada League Sunday when they walloped the Folsom team 17 to 6. A Lincoln man, he had been managing the Colfax Fireballs earlier in the year and for more than 20 years had played baseball in the valley.

Not only was Perry good, the entire team played bang-up ball, slapping three Folsom pitchers for a total of 24 hits, while Folsom hit Perry only eight times, four of these in the first frame during which four runs scored. After that everyone tightened down and the game was one sided as Truckee continued to pound out hits off Stork, Hartlett and Ryan.

Eddie Ulsheimer, Mike Korich and Les Davidson each got four hits in six times up. Faight got three for five, Giovannoni three for six, Williams two for five and Perry and Conners each got one for three, Conners being walked three times.

Some top-notch fielding by the local team was featured, Davidson, Giovannoni and Williams in the outfield never making a bobble.

This Sunday the Mountaineers go to Lincoln where Perry, because of his home town boys, will not pitch. However, the following Sunday, Colfax comes here and a red hot contest is in prospect.

Playing Tonight

The local boys will play an exhibition game tonight at 8:15 in Moana Park at Reno, facing the Reno Merchants.

New Industry Is Started With Plan For Development

Truckee's newest industry is rapidly taking form on 20 acres of land leased from C. A. Tollefson and located just south of the Southern Pacific tracks, a quarter of a mile west of town.

The new business is a permanent rock, sand and gravel plant operated by Reed and Gordon Ferguson of Oakland, who are making an initial investment in excess of $75,000. Permanent equipment is being installed and the brothers anticipate increasing the capacity of the plant as requirements demand.

Huge 50-ton bins for aggregate of all types, rock crushers and washers for sand, gravel and crushed rock and numerous other pieces of equipment are being installed together with a mixing plant for concrete. Four redi-mix trucks will be employed to transport the product to buildings throughout the entire area. In these trucks, the dry mix is prepared in advance and the water added just before the dump is to be made.

One of the first jobs contracted by Ferguson Brothers is supplying the concrete for the new $750,000 high school plant near Truckee. Within ten days or so they will be prepared to do all their own mixing here, although present requirements are being handled through Reno concerns.

The plant will not be in full operation, Reed Ferguson said, for approximately 30 days, but from then on, he added, they will be in position to handle all district needs.

Paul Graham, also of Oakland, is the local manager and approximately 15 men are being employed at the site.

Details Studied To Develop Big Water Program

Estimate Costs Will Run Around $30,000,000, Report Says

Recent meetings held in Reno showed considerable progress is being made toward a $30,000,000 program involving the Truckee and Carson Rivers for irrigation, power development and flood control. A committee composed of representatives of various irrigation, power and conservation groups have made an exhaustive study of the proposals along with U. S. Senators George Malone and Pat McCarran of Nevada and officials of various federal agencies.

Members of the committee expressed gratification at the progress made and the apparent willingness of Army engineers and the reclamation bureau to give the proposals immediate and complete attention.

In relation to the Lake Tahoe and Truckee River area of California, the proposals involve the following:

Construction by the Army engineers of a reservoir at Prosser Creek, tributary to the Truckee River, with a capacity of 135,000 acre feet, cost estimated at $18,000,000.

Construction by the Bureau of Reclamation of a reservoir on the Little Truckee River at the Stampede site just below the old Dog Valley road bridge, capacity 150,000 acre feet, cost estimated at $10,000,000.

Lowering the maximum water level at Lake Tahoe by 1.1 feet to 6228 feet above sea level.

Cleaning up the Truckee River channel below Lake Tahoe.

Construction of two power plants in the Truckee River, one near Verdi with a capacity of 20,000 KW, using water from the Stampede reservoir, and another with 10,000 KW capacity near Prosser Creek site.

Lake Tahoe is faced with a condition, according to the Army engineers' report, where extensive damage results from high water in the lake area under certain water conditions. This report also indicates that it is of great importance to this area and large benefits will result if the high water level of the lake is reduced 1.1 feet as proposed by the Army Engineers.

The suggested development by the committee includes the plan of development proposed by the Army Engineers on the Truckee

Sun Beams

by Walter M. Barrett

From some isolated quarters the Sierra Sun is being criticised for withholding the names of several boys involved in recent burglaries and car lootings. We never expected to be thanked for this action but we do feel that criticism is unjustified. These young men have made a big mistake. Some of them are being punished for their conduct but may return home hopeful of finding a place in society. If the lesson they are now receiving proves ineffectual and it is found they are not willing to conform in the future, then we believe the public should be warned against them through factual stories. Until then we are willing to accept the criticism. When men and women reach legal age they should be held entirely responsible for their conduct and should ask no favor from the public press, but when under the jurisdiction of their parents and teachers, we feel they are entitled to one break—depending upon the nature of the crime or crimes.

FINAL RITES HELD FOR MRS. GRALLI, 54-YEAR RESIDENT

Truckee People Get Judgments In Damage Suit

Cross Damage Action Is Settled Out of Court For $85,000

After two hours deliberation, a jury in the Nevada County superior court late Friday awarded Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith of Truckee judgment of $107,232 for damages suffered in an auto-truck crash here last January 19. The case was heard before Judge James Snell.

A short time later, a suit resulting from the same accident in which Charles B. Cross, manager of the Truckee-Tahoe Lumber Company, was seriously injured, was settled out of court for $85,000.

The Smiths had sued for $175,000 each for injuries suffered when their car and a truck owned by the Silvey Livestock Transportation Company of Hayward collided near the McIver home just west of town. Both Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Cross, a passenger in the car, suffered serious injuries.

The driver of the truck was Manuel J. Abreau who was the principal witness for the defendants.

Cross had originally filed suit for $75,000 but his attorneys indicated the amount would be raised to $250,000, the injuries being found of a more permanent nature than was first believed.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and Cross are still undergoing medical treatment for the injuries suffered when the trailer on the Abreau truck skidded and crashed into their car on the icy pavement.

Dr. L. D. Nelson, Truckee, and Dr. Kenneth McLean of Reno each testified that Smith's injuries constituted about a 50 per cent disability and predicted that Mrs. Smith may never walk again without the aid of crutches.

The meeting will be presided over by Johnny Ciardella, club president, and will be devoted principally to discussions on stream improvement with emphasis on a series of proposed check dams on the Truckee River and tributary streams.

Recently the club passed a resolution directed to the State Wildlife Conservation Committee asking that a survey be made and improvements planned. The funds for this type of work are available, the club has been advised.

It is hoped that a large turnout of sportsmen and businessmen will greet the visitors who will be guided by the desires of the local groups.

School Will Buy King Property In Expansion Plan

Five Tenants are Seeking New Homes in Deal On King's Row

In a move designed to serve two purposes, the trustees of the Tahoe-Truckee Unified School District this week contracted to purchase the five houses, known as King's Row, just back of the Truckee Elementary School, from Joe King for the sum of $22,500.

W. A. Loynd, president of the board of trustees, said the primary purpose of the purchase is to provide more room for the now crowded elementary school, where this year 165 children are expected to attend. One of the houses is to be used to provide an additional classroom until the new high school and junior high school plant, now under construction a mile and a half west of here, is completed, and then it will be converted into a kindergarten, Loynd said.

The half-acre of land which is included in the sale will be converted into additional playground and provide the school with the required space needed.

The other four houses being contracted for will be moved to a location near the new high school and will be offered as rental property to teachers who annually are faced with a serious housing problem locally, Loynd said. Rental will be based on costs as the district is not inclined to provide "cheap" housing, Loynd indicated.

In the meantime the five families currently occupying the dwellings are scurrying about seeking new locations. They are Mrs. Molly Sheldon, whose home is to be converted into a class room; Mrs. Hannah Stewart, J. W. Patton, Harry Barnes and William Allen. Mrs. Sheldon said the board had asked her to be out of the house by August 1, if possible, so that revamping of the building can be started.

Contractors have surveyed the houses and believe they can be moved to the proposed locations at Meadow Park without too much damage.

Work is progressing on the new high school plant and while it will be impossible to have the building ready for occupancy during the approaching term, the board is anxious to have everything in readiness when the time comes to open the new school.

Loynd said that while the new school will accomodate two classes from the elementary school, repeated requests have been made for a kindergarten and the newly acquired house will be suitable.

DENFENSE BOARD IN MEET AT CAPITAL

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— The California Disaster Council met here recently to draw up a program to place the state's civilian defense machinery on an atomic war-age basis.

In opening the meeting, Governor Earl Warren told the group of some 50 officials, peace officers and civis leaders from all parts of California that "the present international situation compels us to take a complete inventory and see where we stand on the civilian defense situation."

Asserting that he believed California to be advanced along this line as far as any other state, the governor told the council the federal government has promised a definite civilian denfense program for the entire nation by Sept. 1.

EXPECTS DROP IN JUVENILE AUTO MISHAPS IN STATE

LOS ANGELES— Now that the California Legislature has made driver education in high schools mandatory, teen-age automobile accidents in the state should drop about 50 per cent.

That was the prediction made by Dr. Amos E. Neyhart, head of the institute of public safety at the Pennsylvania State College, who recently addressed a driver education institute on the Los Angeles campus of the University of California.

"These kids of ours don't have to be killers," he said. "Findings of the American Automobile Assocation in Cleveland reveal that trained driver students had only half as many accidents over a three-year period as their untrained classmates."

The week-long institute at UCLA was sponsored by University of California Extension in cooperation with the California State Department of Education, American Automobile Association and the Automobile Club of Southern California.

College instructors who attended will now spread throughout the state to give driving courses to high school teachers. In turn, they will install courses in their schools this fall.

SWANEE'S TAHOE LETTER

Tahoe City, Calif.
July 20, 1950

Dear Tahoeites:

I write you on Monday morning, a beautiful day, as nearly perfect as they come. This is my second day on duty at the Chamber of Commerce booth at the Tahoe City wye and traffic has certainly been tremendous. After having had the opportunity to sit and watch the cars go by I am convinced that a high per centage of accidnts on the highway are caused by too much speed. Even this close to town and at an intersection some drivers have little regard for speed laws. I marvel there aren't more wrecks than at present. Perhaps a healthy respect for Tahoe's wide awake highway patrolmen deters some of the local residents at least, as the lake has been singularly low on accident tolls, despite the heavy traffic.

Called recently on the Stanley Boltons at their new home in Tahoe Park and found Miss Shirley Flagg, daughter of the John Flagsg, also a guest. Before departing I had my first ride in a 1950 Ford convertible, a beautiful chartreuse job, with heater, radio and all the trimmings, which was Shiriley's graduation present from her parents. And speaking of the Boltons, reminds me that Miss Ditty Bolton is looking forward eagerly to the arrival of the month of September when she hopes she may join her fiance, Pete Ables, who is stationed with the Navy at Guam. If all goes as planned, wedding bells will ring out and Ditty will join Pete at his base. All this, providing Pete does not get sent to Korea before September. Here's wishing them good luck and a happy future despite world conditions.

Had several letters from Tahoeites welcoming me back and giving me their latest news.

One was from Mrs. Gerda Kvistberg whose home near the lake at Tahoe Park was burned to the ground last winter. She wrote from her home in Burlingame and longs to get back to the lake. She has just returned from an enjoyable visit with a granddanghter who resides in Omaha, Nebraska, whom she has not seen in eleven years.

Also had a line from Mrs. Alice Bullion, who, with her husband, formerly owned the Kehoe home on the lakeshore at Sunnyside. She has bought a small place in San Anselmo with garden and orchard and is enjoying her reclining years peacefully.

From Mrs. Mabel Bear comes a line saying she had just returned to her home in San Mateo after having accompanied her daughter to a Shriners' convention in Nebraska. Mrs. Bear and members of her family were regular summer visitors in earlier days at Guth-A-Winga, the John Clark home at Sunnyside, now the property of Mr. and Mrs. Hall Ross of San Mateo.

My neighbors across the street from me on Fairway Drive, Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd Heaney of San Francisco and their elder daughter, Mary, are now enjoying an extensive jaunt in Europe. When last heard from the elder Heaneys were Italy and Mary was in France. Their three other, Jimmy, Joey and Therese, are remaining with their grandmother in San Francisco during their absence.

At the Heaney home at Tahoe City, Dr. Heaney's brother, Charles Heaney, a professional photographer, his wife and two children, Stephen and Paul, and Mrs. Claire Viera and two children, Sally and Margie, all of San Francisco, are vacationing for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stevenson, their daughter, Mrs. Ethel Severson, and her son, Corky, all of Long Beach, who have rented the Sears' summer home on the lake shore at Sunnyside for the month of July, have been enjoying varied trips around the lake and into Nevada during their visit here. Being collectors of unusual items for their southland home, they have kept a keen eye out during their travels for objects of art. One day last week they were dinner guests at Forest Inn on Ward Creek, just a block or two from their place of residence. While chatting with their host, F. P. Faust, they discovered he had for sale one of the rarest of collectors' items, one so scarce as to be almost impossible to finid. Before the evening was over, Mr. Stevenson had bought it for his enthusiastic family. It is a large birdcage, standing almost two feet high, plated in real gold, with a broad base adorned with raised leaf scroll. At the top of the finely twisted gold bars is a large gold ring, making it possible to hang it upon a hook like any other bird cage. The floor of the cage is covered with gold colored velvet and one little bird perches on an ivy covered golden cross bar, which his companion sits on the floor of the cage beside him. The birds are vividly hued, the one on the cross bar is aqua colored with red breast, white head and dark green tail and wing feathers. The one on the floor of the cage has a grey head, raspberry red body plumage and black wings and tail. The cage is wound up with a key and the birds sing, like canaries, but look like anything but! Their singing is ingenious. The one on the top perch singing first, his little beak opening and closing with life-like accuracy, his head twisting from side to side. Then his companion below sings with the same fidelity, both heads nodding in unison. A moment of silence divides each song and their performance continues from 30 to 50 minutes without rewinding. These birds and cages are made in France and only ten are manufactured by this French genius a year. No two birds are made alike and the cages are considered rare "finds" indeed.

In today's mail I find a letter from Harold Ambrosch, who will be remembered by the oldtimers at Meeks Bay as the first moving picture man to entertain summer crowds with pictures each season. With his wife, Mildred, he has conducted shows all around Lake Tahoe and is responsible for publicizing the beauties of the lake, both in winter and summer, in the southern part of the state. He and his wife for several years now have conducted a store in Glendale, handliing all types of cameras and movie equipment and conducting a film library for schools and organizations. He writes he was up to the lake and Truckee in February and took movies of the Dog Derby. He and his wife recently enjoyed a vacation trip to Las Vegas and Boulder Dam, Zion and Bryce Canyons in Utah and the Grand Canyon. Their 12-year-old dog, Lady, died in June and is buried in the pet cemetery of the movie stars in San Fernando Valley, a beautiful cemetery having lawns and trees and better kept than most burial spots for humans. Lady left her mark in the world during a vacation at the lake when she starred in a movie Mr. Ambrosch made for children. It was called "The Pups' Woodland Adventure", co-starring two of her pups, and has been sold for use on television stations. The Ambrosches have a lot in Timberland Tract and hope some day soon to erect a summer cottage and spend all their summers there.

Will wind this up for the week with a reminder to "make haste slowly" when you're behind the wheel of your car on these crowded summer highways. It's so much better to be a little late than to be sorry. Good luck, good health and happy landings to you all. As ever, Swanee.

You can seldom put a price on a telephone call...but we do our best to make sure service is there when you need it.

THE SERVICE THAT NEVER SLEEPS

Round the clock, your telephone is one of today's best bargains

1. Keeping night patrol throughout the West, hundreds of telephone people are on duty to help meet emergencies and make sure your telephone will be ready to work for you when you want it. Many maintenance jobs are done at night while most telephone users are asleep. Lines are checked with electronic testers. Sensitive switching equipment is vacuum cleaned to help stop trouble before it starts.

2. In the quiet hours of the night, operators handle relatively few calls . . . but often they are unusually important. Repairmen are on call for service on important lines . . . doctors, hospitals and the like. Garagemen check and equip trucks for the next day's installation rounds. Building service workers make offices spic and span. All have an important part in keeping your service reliable.

3. Day or night, workday or holiday, your telephone remains one of your most valuable and useful servants. In spite of postwar inflation, telephone rates have gone up far less than our costs of providing service. On the average, rates have gone up less than half as much as the cost of living generally. A few pennies still buy a call . . . whether it be important or routine. Your telephone still gives you a big value for your budget dollar.

Water, Power Proposals

River subject to certain modifications as to the regulation of water in the different reservoirs; also the development of power at the Prosser Reservoir and other minor changes supplemented with a suggested development by the Bureau of Reclamation of a reservoir at Stampede Valley on the Little Truckee River and a power plant connected therewith on the Truckee River above Verdi.

The general plan of the Army Engineers includes the following improvements:

Improvements at the outlet of Lake Tahoe, including a concrete weir at the elevation of the present outlet rim of the lake at Tahoe City, together with certain channel work in the river below the present dam at the outlet of Lake Tahoe.

Reduce the high water level of Lake Tahoe from its present elevation of 6229.1 to an elevation of 6228.0 or a reduction in the storage capacity of approximately 135,000 acre feet.

In addition to this improvement it is suggested that an agreement be entered into between the Lake Tahoe and Nevada interests for installation of a permanent pumping plant at the outlet of Lake Tahoe to be used under certain conditions and restrictioins during periods of deficiency in water supply. The Lake Tahoe water committee, under chairman Will Bliss, has suggested such an arrangement might be negotiated.

The construction of a diversion dam about half a mile west of the town of Truckee and a 500 c.f.m. capacity pipeline and tunnel from that point to the proposed Prosser Reservoir.

The construction of a reservoir on Prosser Creek as outlined above.

In order to improve the benefits that can be secured in this development, it is proposed that all the water the Sierra Pacific Power Company is entitled to use for generation of power be diverted into the Prosser flow line and carried to the Prosser Reservoir; that the power company be granted the right to construct a power plant below Prosser Reservoir and utilize the waters flowing in the Prosser flow line, together with the waters released from the Prosser Reservoir for the generation of electric power; that the company pay, as a benefit to the proposed project, a reasonable charge for the use of the facilities necessary in this proposed project.

It is suggested that the bureau of reclamation construct, if economically feasible, Stampede reservoir with a capacity of 150,000 acre feet and also construct the flow line tunnel from Stampede reservoir to a point on the Truckee River below Fleish power plant and there construct a power plant with a capacity of approximately 20,000 KW.

In order to make this proposed development at Stampede economically feasible, it is proposed that Sierra Pacific, the Washoe County Water Conservation District and the Truckee-Carson Irrigation District pool their water rights on the Little Truckee to provide sufficient water to operate the Stampede power plant.

It is further proposed that the bureau of reclamation enter into a contract with TCID and the power company for the sale of the entire output of the Stampede power plant for a period of 30 years. If the contract be not renewed, the two organizations would be allowed to purchase at a reasonable rate all power generated by waters that are contributed by them. The understanding would be that the power company had purchased from the conservation district the right to use water stored and released from Boca reservoir which are now proposed to be transferred to Stampede reservoir, subject to the same condition.

It will be necessary for each party or area to make certain concessions to the overall project in order that it can be worked out beneficially for all concerned.

Some of the concessions that are proposed are:

The Truckee-Carson Irrigation District, Washoe County Conservation District and the power company would agree to the reduction of Lake Tahoe in an amount of approximately 135,000 acce feet, which storage capacity would be replaced in Prosser reservoir.

Lake Tahoe property owners would agree to construction of a concrete weir outlet at the same elevation as the present outlet of Lake Tahoe into Truckee River.

The power company and the irrigation district would agree to diversion of their storage water from Lake Tahoe and Donner Lake into the Prosser conduit to be used for power purposes.

The conservation district and the power company would agree to the transfer of Boca reservoir storage to Stampede reservoir when and as it was necessary to conserve water for the benefit of the Verdi power plant operation.

The power company would agree to diversion of its Independence storage water and natural flow of the Little Truckee River through Stampede reservoir and Verdi power plant for the benefit of generating power at this plant.

It is proposed that all of the new storage water on the Truckee River would be dedicated to maintain Floriston rates.

The Army engineers' report indicates estimates of cost of its proposed developments on the Truckee and Carson Rivers, based on unit costs of several years past. These costs are subject to revision on present day cost estimates. It is probable that the total costs would reach $30,000,000.

Tahoe Area Families Have Additions

TAHOE CITY— Two Tahoe City families were pleased on Thursday, July 13, to learn of new arrivals within their clans.

One was the firstborn of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stranathan of Auburn, a daughter, Marsha Ann, weighing 6 pounds 15 ounces upon arrival at Highland Hospital, Auburn. Mrs. Stranathan is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wheat of Tahoe Tavern Garage and a sister of Mrs. Al Henry Jr. of Tahoe City.

The second baby, also a girl, was born to Lt. and Mrs. William Lyman Griswold Jr. at their home in Greenfield, Mass. The little lady tipped the scales at 9 pounds and is a "first" for the couple. Mrs. Marie Henry of Tahoe City, the maternal grandmother, has been visiting at the Griswold home for over a month awaiting the stork's arrival. She is now en route home.

Both the new mothers are former Tahoeites.

SEWER PROBLEM TO VOTE SOON SAYS COUNTY OFFICIAL

TAHOE CITY— James Wheat, chief santitarian of the Placer County Health Department from Auburn, was at Lake Tahoe last Thursday on his regular inspection tour. He announced that plans are about completed for the special election which will be held at Tahoe City to determine the disposition of the local populace toward the proposed new sewage plat to serve the town.

Plans must still be submitted for approval to the board of directors of the Tahoe City Public Utility District and a few details worked out before a date can be set.

Asked about when actual work on the plant could get under way, C. W. Vernon, president of the utility district, declared that no date could be given at this time. A test hole must be dug and engineers were expected up last week but failed to arrive. They should be here the middle of this week. The engineers have the plans but the utility district directors have not passed upon them as yet.

Wheat also announced that the Placer County Health Department is working in conjunction with the state health department in making a joint survey along the Yuba River of lodges, homes and business establishments to determine the conditions existing in regards to sewage disposal of that area. Officials hope through the new survey to eliminate all contamination in the river caused by sewage disposal.

Charles K. Richardson and Thom, Placer County sanitarians, are assisting with inspection work for the county and John Baxter of Sacramento for the state department of health.

FLORISTON

Two new families moved into the community of Floriston last week. They are Mr. and Mrs. William Peck and daughter from Richmond, Virginia, and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hix, formerly of Westwood, Calif., and more recently of Reno.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Walker and children visited relatives in San Francisco over the weekend.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seymour visited th Jack Herrington family in Coleville.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Miller left Monday for the Mammouth Lakes region where they will take a three-day pack trip.

The thirty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Savage was celebrated on Sunday, July 16. Enjoying an outdoor barbecue dinner with the couple were their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Suefferle, from Oxford, Ohio.

Down in the Valley—

Mrs. Jeannette Mitchell and son Imon Dale of Sunnyside were Sacramento visitors last week.

Former Tahoeites—

Former Tahoeites who are vacationing at May-Ah-Mee Lodge are Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Westphal and daughter, Gloria, and Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Budd, all of San Francisco. Barbara Westphal, who spent all of her girlhood summers at Lake Tahoe, is married and living in Alaska, where her first child, a son, was recently born.

Al Pollitt Bombardier On Aerial Fish Plant

Allan Pollitt of Placerville and formerly of Tahoe City was in this district this week where he is in charge of the aerial fish planting program of the division of fish and game.

The state men began planting about 208,000 German brown trout in the mountain lakes of Nevada, Sierra, Placer and Yuba Counties on Monday.

Scheduled for aerial planting are lakes which are inaccessible by truck and which in the past have been planted by packing fish in on pack antimals or by manpower, if at all.

The fish, averaging three to four inches in length, will be supplied from the Feather River hatchery at Clio, Plumas County and were flown over the lakes for planting from the Plumas County Airport at Beckworth.

Working with Pollitt, an assistant supervisor of hatcheries who flies as bombardier with Al Reese and Carrol Faist, both of Sacramento, who pilot the fish and game division's twin engine airplane.

Average time for each planting flight is 40 minutes and as many as 25,000 fish are carried in each load, according to Pollitt. He said it is not uncommon to plant from eight to 12 lakes on one trip.

He explained that the fish are dropped from a special release tank from altitudes of from 200 feet to 500 feet. He said they fall free and flutter into the water in a pattern about 30 feet wide and 50 feet long.

Lakes scheduled for planting are identified numerically on maps and aerial photographs. The map and photo numbers correspond to numbers on an allocation chart which lists lake names and number of fish to be planted.

Pollitt explained that by identifying the lakes on the aerial photographs, identification of the waters to be planted is positive and there is no chance of error.

To avoid treacherous air currents which are persent over the lakes during the heat of the day, aerial planting begins at daylight and continues 'til about 9:30 a.m.

Although aerial fish planting began three years ago, this is the first year an intensified state wide program has been carried out, Pollitt said.

"We find that in most areas planting by aircraft is far less expensive than the long laborious task of planting by pack animals," he said. "Inaccessible areas which formerly required all summer to plant can now be taken care of in two or three days."

Three fish planting pickups and one 40-can transport are required to keep the plane busy.

"Aerial planting is extremely thrilling and identification of lakes from forest service maps and photos is absolutely positive," Pollitt said. "I've found that, it is not at all difficult to hit the lakes with a good pattern and lakes as small as two acres can be planted easily."

According to the allotment figures, 128,000 fish are being planted in Nevada County, 19,500 in northern Placer County and about 60,000 in the Gold Lake area in Sierra County.

Plans for planting the lakes were carried out in conjunction with Howard Smith, recreation officer of the Tahoe Natiinal Forest which supplied the maps and aerial photographs.

Self-Government Theme of Tahoe 4H Youth Camp

"Know Your Government" will be the theme of the 1950 Nevada state senior 4-H club camp at Lake Tahoe July 31 to August 5. The rural boys and girls from all parts of that state will not only have a good outing at the affair but will return home with new understanding of democratic processes.

Paul L. Maloney, director of the camp, said it will be operated in a way similar to the government of a small town. Maloney is assistant director for junior extension work of the University of Nevada agricultural extension service, which sponosrs the camp. The 350 campers, he pointed out, form a community like those in many Nevada rural areas.

As soon as they are assembled on the shores of Lake Tahoe, the boys and girls will be under the officers of their mythical municipality. Mayor of the "city" will be the president of the state 4-H members. He is Stanley Schank, who lives on a farm in Churchill County. The vice-president of the 4-H Clubs, Ronald Munk of Lovelock, will serve as vice-mayor. The job of city clerk will be taken by the secretary of state 4-H Club members, Louise Frade of Yerington.

Acting as a city council will be boys and girls elected to the state camp council. These youngsters are chosen in each county by their fellow members before the camp begins. As a city council, they will have general governing powers over the camp. One of the first jobs of the city council will be the election of a municipal judge. He will preside over the council when there is a violation of the camp regulations. With the consent of the council, the mayor will appoint a chief of police, who will carry out the duties of the officer of the day in previous camps.

Mayor Schank also will assign a camper to serve as fire chief. His job will be to protect the camp against fire by checking fire extinguishers and all kinds of fire hazards. Another appointment by the mayor, with the consent of the council, will be the health officer. He will be in charge of the tent inspectors and, in general, he will watch the sanitary conditions of the camp.

After this experience, the boys and girls will return to their home communities with a greater knowledge of how their responsibilities as citizens, Maloney said.

Fish and Game Wardens Are Being Kept Busy

California fish and game wardens caught up with an average of 17 violators each day during the first three months of the year, reads a report from the division of fish and game.

The 90-day total of 1537 convictions saw errant sportsmen sentenced to spend a total of 1689 days in jail and pay fines aggregating $49,883.

WOMAN IS NAMED TO VACANCY ON PLACER CO. BOARD

Governor Earl Warren has announced the appointment of Mrs. Edith McFadden of Forest Hill as a member of the Placer County board of supervisors to succeed her late husband, John W. McFadden. She will represent the fifth district which straddles the Sierra and includes Forest Hill, Iowa Hill and the northwest section of Lake Tahoe, around Tahoe City and Homewood.

Mrs. McFadden, who will serve until an elected successor can take office on January 1, 1951, has informed the governor she will not be a candidate in the special election November 7.

In making the appointment, Warren said: "Mrs. McFadden is familiar with the work of her late husband and assisted him during his long illness. Her appointment was recommended to me by the board of supervisors of Placer County and the Placer County planning commission.

"She has told me she is willing to serve the balance of this year but will not be a candidate in November."

North Tahoe

by T. BURROUGHS

Your North Tahoe Public Utility District Treasurer Mrs. E. Mandeville announces that a syndiate formed by four companies, Stone and Youngberg, Hannaford and Talbot, C. W.White and Company and Mason Brothers, have bought the district's bonds in the amount of $240,000 for which bids were opened on July 8. There was only the one bid for this fifteen year bond issue which carries a five per cent interest rate. The attorney for the district considers this a very good deal in the interests of the people of the North Tahoe Public Utility District. Officers of the NTPUD are A. E. Abbott, manager; H. (Pappy) Brooks, secretary; Joe King, president, and Tom Sutton, vice president.

Work on the sewerage disposal plant has had its set backs. There are unavoidable delays, due to rough terrain. Yes, it is bad to have your frontage chopped all to pieces in mid-season. But, believe me, there are worse conditions in store for those who have not taken advantage of the opportunity for a satisfactory sewerage disposal system. Some sections have been eliminated from the district by a majority vote. It is a safe bet that these districts will realize the necessity of becoming a part of the NTPUD. There are advantages to be gained by a speedy annexation which can only be accomplished by petition to the existing board of directors of the North Tahoe Public Utility District.

George Phillips was surprised Monday evening when a number of his friends dropped in to help him celebrate his 39th birthdate. George is in the Jack Benny class too when it comes to birthdays.

The Women's Society of Christian Service will spend the entire day of July 25 at a work meeting in the Tahoe Vista home of Mrs. Anna Blaue. Pot luck luncheon will be served about noon.

Rev. A. A. Carmitchel, pastor of the Kings Beach Community Methodist Church, has announced that Vesper services will be conducted each Sunday afternoon at 4:30 at the Wee Kirk of the Pines open air chapel at the corner of Bear and Dolly Varden Streets. All are welcome.

Mrs. Cecelia Junge, cousin of Mrs. Anna Blaue, left last Tuesday morning for the bay area where she will visit with friends and relatives for a few days befor continuing on to Bakersfield for another visit with still more friends and relatives, after which she will start her return trip to her home in St. Louis, Mo. Mrs. Junge has had a wonderful time at Tahoe and she thinks our part of the country is tops! Wouldn't surprise us to see her back out here one of these fine days.

Is it too much to ask of the general public to be careful when it comes to tossing burned matches and cigarette stubs from moving cars along our highways in these hills? As grim reminders of what such carelessness can do stand more than one ghost forest. Look at that section of charred trees along the river road between Tahoe City and Truckee, then at another barren strip near Boca. It is not enough that one caught tossing a burning cigarette from an automobile is subject to be fined. That seems to have little effect when few are caught or brought to face such a charge. Cannot each and every one of us be self-appointed to, first of all, be free from blame, then report any other person seen in this criminal act of negligence. Our forests are valuable, doing double duty, giving us both scenic beauty and material wealth.

SACRAMENTO —(W. N. S.)— With the August 7 opening of deer hunting season just around the corner (see map above), the California Division of Fish and Game this week reminded California hunters that 1950-51 hunting licenses are now on sale in five division offices and 3,000 license agencies.

Printed copies of the complete 1950 hunting regulations are now available with each license purchase.

Resident license fees remain the same as last year — $3 for hunting license; $1 for deer tags.

However, out-of-state hunters will feel the effects of a new legislative ruling which boosted their license fee from a reciprocal minimum of $10 to a flat $25. They will also be charged $10 for deer hunting tags.

Predatory Animals

With 26,953 trap sets, 22,931 miles and 768 man-days chalked up during the month of May, hunters and trappers of California division of fish and game reported the take of 550 predatory animals through the state.

12-YEAR-OLD CRITIC PREVUES SHOWS AT LOCAL CINEMA

by CHARLENE SHATTUCK
(12 Year Old Prevuer)

"Riding High" is said to be Bing Crosby's best and after seeing it myself, I certainly agree. As the title suggests, it is a horse picture, that is, about races etc. But don't worry, because Bing sings some wonderful songs throughout the picture such as "Camptown Races," "Sunshine Cake" and many others. Colleen Gray adds to the fun and manages to get a little romance into the picture. Is the ending the horse—Oh, but why tell you the ending. Come and see it for yourself at the Donner Theater Sunday or Monday, July 23 and 24.

The other features of the week at the Truckee show house are "Montana" on Friday and Saturday, July 21 and 22, with Errol Flynn and Alexis Smith; "Eagle and the Hawk", Tuesday and Wednesday, July 25-26, with John Payne and Rhonda Fleming.
